Handbook on Day Specials

Introduction:

Maharashtra Mahavidyalaya takes various initiatives to celebrate the birth and death anniversaries of great leaders, pioneers, devoted social reformers and visionary political leaders, national heroes, writers, and scientists among others. Each special day has a message for the world and an inspiration to seek. To increase awareness and inculcate values among students by celebrating various international and national special days during the academic year, various activities are organized as per the nature of the message the days gives. Celebrating special days and commemorating the great personalities help in inculcating good citizenship among the students besides making them wise and tolerant of the diversities.

The activities on the occasion of the special days are distributed to various departments and cells as per the nature and relevance of the specialty of the days. The National Service Scheme, National Cadet Corps, Cultural Activities Cell, Department of Social Sciences, Science Departments and Department of Commerce organize various special days with various activities.
