Report:

A Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) between Maharashtra Mahavidyalaya, Nilanga, and Shahu College (Autonomous), Latur, has yielded significant outcomes aimed at fostering academic collaboration and institutional development. Through joint efforts outlined in the MoU, both institutions have achieved enhanced academic excellence through curriculum development initiatives and collaborative research projects. The exchange programs facilitated under the agreement have provided students and faculty with valuable opportunities for global exposure, networking, and skill development, thereby increasing their employability and professional growth. Shared resources such as libraries and laboratories have been effectively utilized, optimizing infrastructure and resource management. Furthermore, collaborative community service initiatives have made a positive impact on the local community, demonstrating social responsibility and contributing to societal development. This successful partnership has not only enhanced the reputation of both Maharashtra Mahavidyalaya, Nilanga, and Shahu College, Latur, but also laid the foundation for continued collaboration in research, academic exchange, and cultural enrichment, benefiting students, faculty, and the broader academic community.

Outcomes:

1. Enhanced Academic Excellence: Collaboration on curriculum development, joint research projects, and academic exchanges can lead to improved academic standards and enriched learning experiences for students and faculty from both institutions.
2. Increased Research Output: Joint research initiatives and collaborative projects can result in increased research publications, patents, and innovations, contributing to the advancement of knowledge in various fields.
3. Global Exposure and Networking: Student and faculty exchanges can provide opportunities for exposure to different academic and cultural environments, fostering global perspectives and expanding professional networks.
4. Improved Infrastructure and Resource Utilization: Sharing of educational resources such as libraries, laboratories, and digital learning materials can optimize resource utilization and enhance infrastructure development at both institutions.
5. Enhanced Employability: Skill development programs, workshops, and training sessions can enhance the employability of students by equipping them with relevant skills and industry knowledge.
6. Community Impact and Social Responsibility: Joint outreach programs and community service initiatives can make a positive impact on the local community, demonstrating social responsibility and contributing to societal development.
7. Institutional Growth and Reputation: Successful collaboration can enhance the reputation and standing of both Maharashtra Mahavidyalaya, Nilanga, and Shahu College, Latur, nationally and internationally, attracting talented students and faculty.

And
Department of Commerce,
Maharashtra Mahavidyalaya, Nilanga

Department of Commerce Rajarshi Shahu Mahavidyalaya (Autonomous), Latur and Department of Commerce Maharashtra Mahavidyalaya, Nilanga agrees to cooperate with each other in curriculum as well as co-curriculum activities with a view to enhance the academic excellence benefiting the students and staff of both the colleges. A brief outline of the MoU is...

A. Program:

1. B. Com.
2. M. Com.
3. B. Voc. In Retail Management
4. B. Voc. In Accounting and Taxation

B. Objectives

The goal is to foster collaboration, provide opportunity for changed experience and to facilitate advancement of knowledge on the basis of reciprocity, best effort, mutual benefit, and frequent interactions. Both institutions Dept. of Commerce agrees on the following points:

- a) To exchange information on research and educational programmes
- b) To exchange information on teaching, learning material and other literature relevant to their educational and research programmes
- c) To jointly organize education programmes on topics of mutual interest and to invite each other's faculty to participate therein.
- d) To jointly organize seminars, conferences, or workshops on topics of mutual interest and to invite each other's faculty to participate therein
- e) To jointly propose and engage in research or training programmes sponsored by funding agencies, and to invite each other's faculty to participate therein
- f) To exchange, on a reciprocal basis, students at undergraduate and post graduate level for purpose of education and /or research.
- g) It is also agree that the detailed terms and conditions that guide each activity identified above will be separately determined and agreed upon by the two institutions.

C. Student Exchange

Both the Institutions Dept. of Commerce agree that student exchange will be guided by principles listed below. A home institution refers to the institution where a student is a full-time student, and from where he/she is expected to graduate. A host institution refers to an institution that receives a student for a brief period of time to undertake a pre-determined programme of study or research.

- a) Exchange students will be selected by mutual agreement between the home institution and the host institution.
- b) An exchange student will continue to be treated as full-time student at his/her home institution.
- c) An exchange student will be considered as full-time "exchange" student at the host institution.
- d) His/her programme of study at the host institution will be determined by mutual consultation between his/her academic advisor at the home institution and his/her "interim" academic advisor identified by the host institution.
- e) The host institution will evaluate an exchange student's performance in each course or module, award a letter grade or marks, and issue a letter to that effect.

- f) The home institution may award to the exchange student credits earned at a host institution, but only after the home institution has established correspondence between courses taken at the host institution vis-a-vis those offered at the home institution.
- g) If an exchange student has undertaken research project, then the host institution will evaluate the exchange student's performance in the research project, and issue a letter to that effect, together with a technical "report" of the research project carried out.
- h) If an exchange student has undertaken research project, then the home institution will take note of the performance evaluation and the technical report, and take steps in accordance with its own procedures.

D. Exchange of Faculty

Both Institutions Dept. of Commerce agree to encourage collaboration between faculty of the Dept. of Commerce. Specifically, institution will encourage members of Dept. of Commerce to undertake short visits to, or take up specific visit for Teaching, Examination, Evaluation and for assignments etc. each other's institution as per the existing norms.

E. Exchange of Study Material :

Each Institutions Dept. of Commerce will exchange information on teaching/learning material, research activities and other relevant programmes.

F. Collaborative Activities:

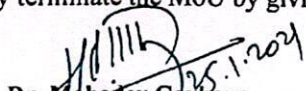

Both Institutions Dept. of Commerce agree to organize joint Conferences, workshops and courses and also agree to help identify and invite faculty members from the other institution to participate in conferences, workshops and courses.

G. Co-ordination :

Each institution Dept. of Commerce shall appoint one member of its teaching faculty to coordinate the programme on its behalf. The Coordinator from the each side will periodically review and identify ways to strengthen cooperation between the two institutions.

H. Tenure and Termination:

This MoU will take effect from the date it is signed by representatives of the two institutions. It will remain valid for next five years, and may be continued thereafter after suitable review and agreement. Either institution may terminate the MoU by giving written notice to the other institution six months in advance.
