Brief Report:

"Milkha Singh: Zindaginama" is a documentary about the life of Milkha Singh, also known as The Milkha Singh. This documentary is based on Milkha Singh's autobiography. This documentary is a presentation by Government of India's public service broadcaster Prasar Bharati. The duration of the documentary is 45 minutes. It starts with narration by an unknown narrator describing the life and deeds of Milkha Singh. During the documentary there are excerpts of interviews with Milkha Singh. Various kinds of memories and photographs from the past life of Milkha Singh are featured in this documentary. During his interview Milkha Singh says that without determination nothing can be accomplished in life. His determination to shine the name of the country in the world gave him the titles and accolades in athletics. Struggles done by Milkha Singh and all the support that he got from the country are described in the documentary. After the screening of the documentary a discussion about the contents and presentation skills in the documentary were discussed with students by Miss Manisha Ghogre. The students participated in the discussion and pointed out the facts and visuals they liked the most. The original footage was appreciated by the students.
