Annual special camp of the National Service Scheme (NSS)

at Village Ansarwada

Date: 18 to December 24, 2019

A Brief Report

The annual special camp of the National Service Scheme (NSS) of Maharashtra College, Nilanga, titled "Special Youth and Volunteer Work Camp for Environmental and Natural Resource Conservation and Swachh Bharat Mission" was held from December 18 to December 24, 2019. This camp was conducted with the permission of the Swami Ramanand Teerth Marathwada University NSS Department and the consent of the Ansarwada Gram Panchayat. A total of 75 volunteers participated in this camp. Under the guidance of the Principal, Vice-Principal, and Advisory Committee members of the college, and with the cooperation of the Ansarwada Gram Panchayat, the camp was successfully conducted under the leadership of Program Officers Dr. S.G. Benjalwar, Dr. V.P. Sandur, and V.S. Jadhav. The brief report of the seven-day camp is as follows:

First Day - December 18, 2019

On December 18, 2019, from 10:00 to 11:00 AM, the camp began with the arrival of the volunteers and program officers Dr. S.G. Benjalwar, Dr. V.P. Sandur, and V.S. Jadhav at the camp site in Mauje Ansarwada. Discussions with local residents were held to finalize the camp's planning.

RA MANAL

The inauguration ceremony of the camp took place as scheduled from 12:30 to 2:30 PM. Mr. Ashokrao Patil Nilangekar was present as the chief guest for the inauguration. He lit the ceremonial lamp to mark the opening of the camp and expressed that the National Service Scheme provides courage to face challenges. The Principal of the college, Dr. V.L. Erande, presided over the inauguration ceremony. Also present were Vice-Principal Dr. M.N. Kolpuke, Prof. P.P. Gaikwad, Sarpanch of Ansarwada village Mrs. Padminee Usnale, Mr. Balaji Usnale, Mr. Sunil Varwate, Mr. Prakash Patil, Pandhari Zhare, Mr. Mahesh Mane, and other esteemed villagers. The introductory speech was given by Program Officer Dr. S.G. Benjalwar, and the vote of thanks was delivered by Dr. V.P. Sandur.

After the inauguration, a meeting was held with the volunteers and program officers to outline the daily routine, discipline, and work plan for the camp. In the evening session, Mr. M.M. Jadhav gave a talk on "Ideal Village: The Need of the Hour."

Second Day - December 19, 2019

The second day began with yoga, pranayama, and physical exercises. Program Officer Dr. S.G. Benjalwar provided training in yoga and exercises. This was followed by prayers and motivational songs. After a light snack and tea, the volunteers engaged in manual labor from 8:00 AM to 12:00 PM, digging soak pits for wastewater management. The female volunteers promoted cleanliness awareness by visiting households.

In the morning, with the help of the Veterinary Center Makni (Thor), an animal health check-up camp was organized. A total of 56 animals were examined, vaccinated, and treated. Program Officer Dr. S.G. Benjalwar, Dr. V.P. Sandur, Prof. V.S. Jadhav, and local residents including Mr. Balaji Usnale, Mr. Dhanraj Mane, and Mr. Sunil Varwate contributed their efforts for the success of this camp.

In the afternoon session, representatives from the Salaam Foundation Mumbai, Mr. Swami Somnath and Rahul Kharat, guided the participants on the topic of "Tobacco-Free Campaign and Youth." They provided scientific information on the health problems and human harm caused by tobacco addiction. Mr. Dutta Shahir presided over this session.

Third Day - December 20, 2019

The third day commenced with yoga, pranayama, and physical exercises. Volunteers Avaj Patel and Nasser Deshmukh conducted the yoga session. Program Officers Dr. S.G. Benjalwar and Dr. V.P. Sandur explained the daily work schedule. After breakfast and tea, from 8:00 AM to 12:00 PM, the volunteers dug soak pits and water recharge pits.

In the afternoon session, Dr. Naresh Pinamkar and Dr. Ajit Muljkar provided guidance on personal development. Prof. G.P. Shendge was present as the session chair. In the evening session, Mr. Sudhakar Deshmukh spoke on "Tree Counting: The Need of the Hour." A large number of volunteers and villagers attended this session.

Fourth Day - December 21, 2019

The fourth day started with yoga, pranayama, and physical exercises. Volunteers Avaj Patel and Nasser Deshmukh conducted the session. Program Officers Dr. S.G. Benjalwar and Dr. V.P. Sandur, along with Prof. Vishwanath Jadhav, explained the work plan for the day. After breakfast and tea, from 8:00 AM to 12:00 PM, volunteers cleaned the area around Gaibisab Dargah.

In the morning, with the cooperation of the Halgara Primary Health Center and Nilangra Sub-District Hospital, a health check-up camp and free medication distribution was conducted. Over 300 villagers were examined. The sub-district hospital also conducted blood and HIV tests for all the camp volunteers. Program Officers Dr. S.G. Benjalwar, Dr. V.P. Sandur, Prof. V.S. Jadhav, and local residents including Mr. Balaji Usnale, Mr. Dhanraj Mane, and Mr. Sunil Varwate contributed their efforts to the success of this health camp.

In the afternoon, Mr. Narsing Zhare spoke on "Lifestyle of Nomadic and Freed Communities." In the evening session, Dr. Gyaneshwar Chaudhari discussed "Social Realities in Short Films" with the volunteers and villagers.

Fifth Day - December 22, 2019

The fifth day started with yoga, pranayama, and physical exercises. Volunteers Avaj Patel and Nasser Deshmukh conducted the session. Program Officers Dr. S.G. Benjalwar and Dr. V.P. Sandur, along with Prof. Vishwanath Jadhav, explained the work schedule for the day. After breakfast and tea, from 8:00 AM to 12:00 PM, volunteers dug approximately 100 pits for tree plantation, while female volunteers worked on village cleanliness.

In the afternoon, Mr. Syed Rahman, a Police Sub-Inspector from Latur, spoke on "Life Values: The Need of the Hour." In the evening session, Dr. Lalasahib Deshmukh guided the participants on "Health Conservation."

Sixth Day - December 23, 2019

The sixth day started with yoga, pranayama, and physical exercises. Volunteers Avaj Patel and Nasser Deshmukh conducted the session. Program Officers Dr. S.G. Benjalwar and Dr. V.P. Sandur, along with Prof. Vishwanath Jadhav, explained the day's work plan. After breakfast and tea, from 8:00 AM to 12:00 PM, the volunteers planted Ashoka saplings in the pits prepared the previous day.

In the afternoon session, Mr. Sunil Varwate spoke on "Indian Constitution and Fundamental Rights." In the evening, various talent shows including song performances, poetry recitals, speeches, and impromptu speeches were conducted.

Seventh Day - December 24, 2019

The final day of the camp began with yoga, pranayama, and physical exercises. Volunteers Avaj Patel and Nasser Deshmukh conducted the session. Program Officers Dr. S.G. Benjalwar and Dr. V.P. Sandur, along with Prof. Vishwanath Jadhav, explained the final day's activities. After breakfast and tea, from 8:00 AM to 12:00 PM, volunteers watered the newly planted trees in the village.

Closing Ceremony

The closing ceremony of the camp was held under the chairmanship of the college Vice-Principal, Dr. M.N. Kolpuke. Prof. Prashant Gaikwad was the chief guest for the ceremony. Program Officer Dr. Vitthal Sandur delivered the introductory speech, while Prof. Vishwanath Jadhav reviewed the various activities conducted during the seven-day camp. The vote of thanks was given by Program Officer Dr. S.G. Benjalwar.
